

Introduction

The world of crypto cats and apes is a fantasy setting with numerous fantasy animals coexisting on Arilia. It is a blockchain based fantasy-survival role playing game where the users can choose either of the characters to explore the planet and fight for the holy nector Axraura, through various combat skills.

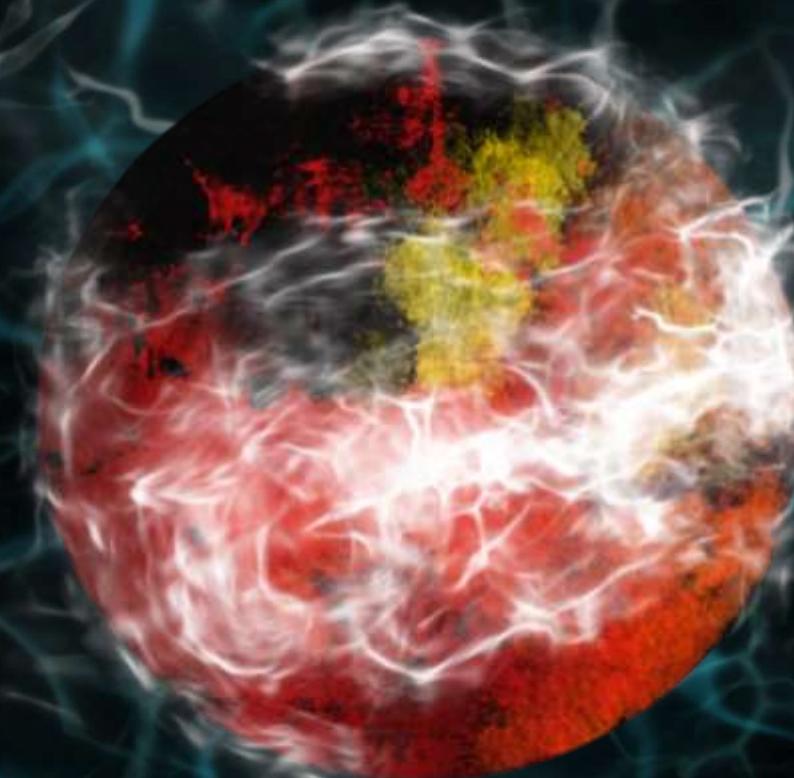

Game Summary

The game provides two main characters as a cat and an ape. They are at war against each other for the possession of holy nectar Axraura life of Arilia, which is originally inhabited by cats. Apes are in urgent need of Axraura for survival at their home planet 'Orumerilia'.

Cats are furious warriors and have high end combat skills while Apes are technologically advanced but lack combat skills as centuries of peace prevailed on their planet.

The player can choose to play either as a cat or as an ape and then find their way. Players can collect and craft weapons, items, trade them as NFTs, use them to complete quest, fight against the invasion of apes and to win over wild animals.

Key Element

It's all about getting control over the sources of Axraura, which are required for survival by both the races.
